

EXPERIENCE THE EXCITEMENT OF ENGINEERING

ENGINEERING LINK PROJECT

*Are you in Year 11 or 12 and wanting an exciting, useful and meaningful career, using your love of STEM?
Want to meet like-minded people who share your passions?
You need to be at James Cook University in July!*

The FNQ Engineering Link Project is a two-day, hands-on engineering experience for Year 11 & 12 students.

Working with real engineers across a wide range of engineering disciplines, students will be presented with real engineering problems and in teams, will design and create solutions.

You don't want to miss this excellent opportunity to see if engineering is the career for you!

Engineering—Change the World for the Better!
